U.S. Patent No. US 8,799,083 v. Raising Cane's USA, LLC

1. Claim Chart

Claim	Analysis
[1.P] A method, comprising: receiving at least one request of at least one service related to a restaurant menu from a mobile phone;	Raising Cane's USA, LLC ("Company") performs and/or induces others to perform a method comprising: receiving at least one request of at least one service related to a restaurant menu from a mobile phone. This element is infringed literally, or in the alternative, under the doctrine of equivalents. For example, Company provides a Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers application which is installed on various devices such as smartphones, and tablets ("mobile phone"). Further, the application allows users to perform various functionalities such as finding nearby Raising Cane's Restaurants' locations and viewing menus. Additionally, the application allows users to order a meal from the restaurant menu displayed within the application ("receiving at least one request of at least one service related to a restaurant menu").
